

Literacy Volunteers of Ontario-Yates

KELLY JOHNSON APPOINTED ONTARIO STUDENT/TUTOR COORDINATOR November 2011

We welcome Kelly Johnson as the new Student/Tutor Coordinator for Ontario County. She is replacing Mary Murphy, who stepped down from that position recently.

Kelly lives in Naples, NY but was born and raised in Canandaigua.

Our new Coordinator has a B.A. degree in Communications from SUNY Geneseo. In addition, because continued learning is very important to her, she has taken graduate courses in School and Community Counseling at the University of Rochester and, this past fall, she audited a Principles of Accounting class at Nazareth College.

Her approach to her new position will concentrate on building relationships throughout Ontario County and elsewhere in the adult learning community. She will meet with various groups and establish collaborative efforts with people in community agencies. She plans on meeting with business owners and working with volunteers. "I am very fortunate," said Kelly, "for in this position I will get to know people from all walks of life, some of whom will benefit from the services Literacy Volunteers offers, and some of whom will benefit from contributing to LVOY as tutors, volunteers, and investors. I look forward to being smack dab in the middle of where need, service, opportunity, and success intersect."

We wish Kelly the best in her new position and look forward to the positive results in the form of new students, tutors, and volunteers who will join the LVOY family. Congratulations, Kelly!
